SENIORS CAN HITCH A FREE RIDE TO SERVICES THROUGH ON THE GO

Jewish Family Service's On the Go program will offer seniors free rides to High Holy Days services throughout the county.

No one over the age of 60 should miss High Holy Days services if they don't have transportation, which is why JFS and On the Go have teamed up again this year to offer those community members a free ride to and from services in most instances.

Advance registration is required, and seniors must live within the service area and go to a participating synagogue to receive a ride from volunteer drivers.

Participating synagogues include: Congregation Beth Am, Congregation Beth El, Congregation Beth Israel, Congregation Dor Hadash, Ner Tamid Synagogue, Temple Adat Shalom, Ohr Shalom Synagogue, Temple Emanu-El, Temple Solel and Tifereth Israel Synagogue.

In addition to High Holy Days services transportation, On the Go keeps seniors moving with volunteer drivers who provide individual transportation to doctor appointments and other errands, shuttles for group transportation and organized excursions throughout San Diego and the surrounding areas.

For more information, go to www.jfssd.org/onthego or call (619) 220-0268.

KEVER AVOT V'IMAHOT OBSERVANCES

The SAN DIEGO RABBINICAL ASSOCIATION has organized Kever Avot V'imahot observances again this year, ensuring that both a rabbi and cantor are available to chant memorial prayers and say kaddish.

Kever Avot V'imahot, the practice of visiting the graves of loved ones during the High Holy Days observance, is practiced across Jewish denominations.

The tradition of visiting the graves of loved ones on the Sunday between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is not specific to any one Jewish denomination, although it is still not a very widely practiced tradition. It's a way to honor the past before forging ahead, refreshed after the holiest days of the year, and can be practiced at any cemetery, whether a loved one is buried there or not.

This year's memorial services will be Sunday, Sept. 23, at 10 a.m. They will take place at both Home of Peace Cemetery, 7364 El Cajon Blvd., and Greenwood Memorial Park and Mortuary, 4300 Imperial Ave.
